

The Daily Courant.

Saturday, May 5. 1722.

London, May 5.
Yesterday arrived a Mail from France, and another from Holland.

Lisbon, April 11.

THE Night before the Brazil Fleet sailed from hence, 19 Persons were taken up in this City, accused of having defrauded the King of his Customs; they are sent on Board a Ship bound for Goa, where they are to remain in exile during Life. This Government will shortly publish a strict Ordinance against such Persons as shall be convicted of defrauding the Customs. Several British Ships are taking in Salt at St. Ubes, for the Ports in the Baltic.

Rome, April 18. It is reported, that Cardinal Alberoni's Affair has been decided in a full Congregation of Cardinals, but the Decision is not yet made Publick. The 9th of the next Month being the Anniversary of the Pope's Elevation to the Papacy, 'tis believed his Holiness will then create several new Cardinals.

Madrid, April 21. Letters from Aranjuez say that the Royal Family continues in good Health; and that it was reported the Court would make a Tour to Toledo.

Warsaw, April 15. The King being set out for Carlsbad, the Hopes of seeing his Majesty soon here are laid aside. Advices from Lemberg say, that M. Popiel, our Ambassador to the Ottoman Port, was set out on the 13th Instant for Constantinople, having received at Lemberg the Benediction of the Archbishop of that Place. The Bashaw of Chocim still assures, that the Grand Signior is determined to keep inviolable the Peace of Paissarowitz.

Oldenſee, May 3. Yesterday the King of Denmark arrived at Fuhnen and lay within a League of this Place; his Majesty will set out on the 5th Instant for Colding. On the 20th of last Month an 80 Gun Mulcovite Ship coming from Holland, passed the Sound, without Anchoring, and proceeded on her Voyage towards Petersbourg.

Hambourg, May 5. Advices from Stockholm say, the King of Sweden was expected shortly at Carelſcoorn to view the Fleet which is getting ready there. Several Frigates are likewise fitting out at Gottenbourg. The Accounts from Petersbourg mention an Order being lately sent from the Caar to the Board of Trade, to assign proper Habitations for the Merchants of Archangel who are come to fix at Petersbourg.

Hambourg, May 8. The King of Denmark is arrived at the Castle of Clausholm in Jutland, and his Majesty will continue there a Week before he proceeds on his Journey to Holstein. It is said that a Body of Troops are to encamp near Radzebourg.

Brussels, April 30. Some Days ago, the Marquis de Prie summoned Extraordinarily the Council of State, to deliberate on the Proposal offered by the States of Flanders for Farming the Customs Inwards and Outwards of their Province. The Great Council and Magistrates of the three chiefest Cities of Brabant have consented to the Subsidies levied for the Year 1721, and 'tis hoped the other Corporations will follow their Example. The Dutch Garrisons in the Frontier Places being shortly to be relieved, the Marquis de Prie, and M. Peeters, the States General's Resident, are settling the Route which those Troops are to march by, and other necessary Matters to be observed in their Passage through Places where Imperial Troops are garrisoned.

Paris, May 9. It is said, that the Marques de Lede arrived here on the 6th Instant. It is also said, that the King's Coronation is to be deferred till the next Year after his Majesty is of Age. On the 7th Instant, the Cardinal de Noailles gave the Benediction to the Abbess de Malnoue in the Church of Val de Grace; the Abbess de Chelles and her Sisters, Madames de Beaujolois and de Chartres, assisted at that Ceremony; after which, the Duke Regent's Officers served up a magnificent Entertainment in the Convent.

Hague, May 11. The States General have appointed M. Rombout to command in Sas Van Ghent, in the Room of Colonel Balfour lately deceased. Mess. de Raed and Van Sugheten are ordered by the Council of State to visit the fortified Places along the Meuse, Mess. de Sonsbeek and Nierop to those in Flanders, and Mess. Rengers and Bouthenus to those of Westwoldingerland. It is said, that the Squadron which is to be sent against the Algerines is to be reinforced by other Ships, and will winter in the Ports of Spain.

Falmouth, April 30. Yesterday came in the Olive-Tree of and for London from Smyrna; and the Potazam Merchant of London from St. Ubes.

Dartmouth, May 1. On the 29th past came in the Adventure from Boston, laden with Logwood, in a Month and four Days; and the Ringmer from Lisbon for London.

Dral, May 3. Arrived the Norfolk from Lisbon, and a Hagboat from Santa Cruz.
